Collection of Hydrographic Data by US and British

3660. SHRI P. PRABHAKAR REDDY:

SHRI RAMA MUNI REDDY SIRIGIREDDY:

Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news report "US, UK ships caught snooping in India Waters" published in the Times of India dated 1st February, 2001;

(b) if so, Government's reaction and since long US and British ships have been collecting the hydrographic data from Indian waters; and

(c) what steps proposed to taken to address the problems highlighted in the report and prevent the foreign hydrographic vessels from mapping Indian waters for future submarine operation in the area?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The US Navy Survey Vessel USNS Bowditch was detected on 28 November 2000 and the UK Royal Navy Vessel HMS

Scott was first detected on 6th December 2000 and again from 12—16 January 2001.

The Government regards the operation by the US and UK Naval Vessels within the Indian Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) as violation of the United Nations Convention on the laws of the Sea III (UNCLOS III) and the Indian Maritime Zone Act 1997 as its prior approval was not obtained for conducting such operations. Protests have been lodged with both the concerned Governments and it has been conveyed that such activities without prior approval will not be permitted in the Indian EEZ.
